

POSITION

CORPORATE HEALTH PROMOTION

Health Futures Pty Ltd has been providing individual health assessments and lifestyle counselling to corporate and government sectors, nationally, for 10 years.

The current position is based in Sydney.

We are also soon to consider applicants for positions in Canberra and Melbourne. Thus applications in these areas are also welcomed.

The successful candidate will be involved in all levels of program delivery including: on-site health assessment of employees (anthropometry, review blood tests, questionnaires etc.); Lifestyle counselling; Liaise with management; Produce individual reports and administration.

We are looking for a career minded person to join our expanding team on a full time basis (although, for the right person, a position of three or four days per week may be negotiated).

Essential Criteria: Relevant tertiary qualifications or equivalent; Exceptional communication skills; Professional presentation and ability to work autonomously; Computer literate; Current drivers license; Own transport and willingness to travel.

Desirable Criteria: Knowledge of health assessment protocols; Previous lifestyle counselling Attractive remuneration package commensurate with experience will be negotiated.

Applications only via:

fax 02 4229 6533 or email: position@healthfutures.com.au

